Procurement Round Table 2025 Contracting Excellence Award in memory of Elmer B. Staats “$5,000 Could be Yours”

— Award nominations due by March 28, 2025 —

The Procurement Round Table, in cooperation with the National Contract Management Association will award $5,000 at the 2025 NCMA World Congress conference to a federal acquisition professional who has been determined to have contributed significantly to contracting excellence:

- Noteworthy contributions to contracting excellence such as extraordinary business leadership in the design, development or execution of an improved contracting process or procedure. Such contributions also include performance of any single task that merits special recognition because of its contribution to meeting contract cost, schedule or performance goals.
- Noteworthy contributions to implementing accomplishments and innovations throughout your agency include the development of a management policy, regulation, data system or other task that significantly enhances the economy, efficiency and effectiveness of an agency's acquisition system or the federal acquisition system.

To be eligible for the Contracting Professional Excellence Award, candidates must:

- have made a noteworthy contribution to contracting operations or policy within 12 months of the due date for nominations;
- have not less than 5 and not more than 15 years of civil or military service as contracting officer, contract specialist, procurement analyst or purchasing agent, 1101 series or related military specialty; and
- possess a Bachelor's or Higher-level academic degree

Winner will receive $5,000 and, along with their supervisor, free admission to 2025 NCMA World Congress where the award will be presented.
